

Alternatives to Google Image Search

Richard Byrne - FreeTech4Teachers.com

	Public Domain or Creative Commons?	Media types	Registration Required.	Consideration for classrooms.
Stockio stockio.com	Public Domain	Image, video, icons, fonts.	Optional.	Image citation not required, but is encouraged.
Pixabay pixabay.com	Public Domain	Image	Optional.	Sponsored images from Shutterstock may confuse some students. Make sure to enable safe search.
Photos for Class photosforclass.com	Creative Commons	Image	No.	Uses Flickr as image source with additional image filters added on.
Morgue File morguefile.com	Both	Image	Optional.	Mix of Public Domain and Creative Commons images. Students must check licensing on each image.
The Public Domain Review publicdomainreview.org	Public Domain	Image, Audio, Video	Optional.	Search options aren't refined.

Wikimedia Commons commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/Main_Page	Both	Image, Audio, Video	Optional.	Search can be confusing. Mix of Public Domain and Creative Commons images. Students must check licensing on each image.
Library of Congress loc.gov	Public Domain	Image, Audio, Video	No.	Search can be confusing.
NPS Digital Image Archive nps.gov/pub_aff/imagebase.html	Public Domain	Image, Video	No.	Search can be confusing.
Flickr - The Commons flickr.com/commons	Public Domain	Image	No.	Students can easily end up on Flickr.com instead of The Commons.